

Antequera meeting

2014 05 22

OK, to clear some confusion, despite what it says on the website, our Rally this Saturday is the Antequera meeting!

There are a couple of club members who are making their own way to the Hotel Convento de Magdalena, Antequera, and will meet up with us there at approx. 10.30am. I would very much like us to go together in convoy (as I have made some Club logo's ) therefore we shall meet at the BP petrol station opposite to the entrance to La Canada at approx. 8.45am. Hopefully we are able to leave at 9.00am. which will enable us to arrive in Antequera at approx 10.30am. Please therefore try and make it to the meeting point on time.

Lunch and entrance fee is 25Euros, and for those wishing to pay their membership fee, please Pay Sally on the day.

Dear friends,

There has been some renewed ideas about our next event on 24th May. The Porsche Club Granada and the Murcia Club have invited us to a meeting in Antequera. I had the intention of organising such a meeting for the future, however I think this would be an excellent opportunity. I am contacting their club organisers to inform them that we will accept their invitation. I have enclosed the itinerary for the day and hope that you will support our club at this unique event. please let me know if you would like to attend.

saludos ,

Gary.
