

Our Porsche day began with everyone meeting at Venta Pelegrino just off the exit road to Ojen for coffee and registration. The weather could not have been better as Club President Gary greeted regular and new members to the start of what turned out to be a memorable event. Following coffee we all moved off in convoy towards our first stop the Venta Heradura near Zalea. At the Venta co-founder Peter Gavrell organised the members for a photo shoot. Continuing on and after a wonderful drive through the spectacular Andalusian countryside, the convoy arrived at our lunch destination the Restaurant. Nueva Kaskada. Edward and his staff greeted us with a sumptuous variety of canapés and a glass or two of champagne. The menu and selection of wines offered was of the highest quality as only Edward can produce. Good food, wine, good company all accompanied by live music saw many of the members taking to the dance floor. Gary in his speech again welcomed the new members to the club and outlined the many exciting events forthcoming. A thoroughly great day was enjoyed by all.
