

POCA Rally May 27-28

Follows some information on the weekend run of May 27th and 28th. The run will take us on Saturday from Sotogrande to El Castillo de Castillar, then to Medina Sidonia and Vejer de le Frontera. We will be staying overnight at the Dehesa Montenmedio resort on the road to Algeciras. On the Sunday we drive on the N340 to Algeciras and will have a ride through the hills to see the windmills and then onto a restaurant nearby Algeciras for lunch.

We will give you a Programme and Roadbook for the trip later.

Since the hotel has only 24 rooms it is essential that we know as quickly as possible how many rooms we need. All rooms are doubles and carry a price of 93 € including breakfast for 2. Marc and Ann who are organising the run have booked 15 rooms so far and we have already 12 participants. Reservations can be cancelled without charge up to 72 hours from the arrival date, with a 50 % penalty from 48 hours and a 100 % penalty on the day preceding the arrival.

Some of you have already booked hotel and Rally, so just confirm to Marc that you are coming.

Send an email to Marc if you want to attend the rally
